Where do i even start? Im so scared of the unknown

I should check if it's safe to visit here

I definitely want to see that attraction!

I'm sorry, do you speak any english?

Am I in the right place? What if i dont follow the local regulations correctly

What if i forget something important?

Oh my, I am SO overwhelmed Maybe trying to make some friends might help me

I am so happy that I pushed myself to be here!

I need to plan out my stay to be as safe as possible

Why do I lack so much confidence in my decisions

I should contact my family, they must be worried

Why am I so lost?
